

When you change the way you look at a challenging kid...the kid changes.

RSVP by Feb 14

(instructions on Page 2)

Understanding & Responding to Children and Youth With Emotional and Behavioral Issues by Creating & Maintaining a Positive, Strength-Based Culture in Your Setting

Two-Day Train the Trainer Seminar

For Educators & Mental Health Professionals

April 2 and 3, 2012

Conducted by Youth Care Specialist, Charlie Appelstein, MSW

Author of "No Such Thing As A Bad Kid"
&
"The Gus Chronicles"

WHERE:

Gateway Regional
School District
12 Littleville Rd.,
Huntington, MA 01050

WHEN:

Monday, 4/2 &
Tuesday, 4/3

Registration at 8:30 am
Seminar: 9am - 3:30 pm

Workshop Description:

Strength-based practice is an emerging approach to helping at-risk children, youth and their families that is exceptionally positive and inspiring. Its focus is on strength-building rather than flaw fixing. It begins with the belief that all individuals have or can develop strengths and use past successes to stop problem behavior and enhance decision making.

Areas covered include:

- What is strength-based practice?
 - The power of positive attitude and culture;
 - Strength-based communication principles and techniques;
 - Self-esteem building & activities for youth;
 - How to help inflexible and explosive young people;
 - What every teacher or child welfare professional should know about developmental psychology;
 - Enhancing empathy for traumatized children and youth;
 - The importance of being family centered;
 - Why, how and when to use incentive plans;
- AND MUCH MORE!

*Qualified Participants
Earn
12 C.E.U.'s
with a $15
processing cost*

*Includes lunch on both days
plus refreshments*

REGISTRATION:

Fax registration forms to
(877) 766-4487

or

Email registration forms to charlieap@comcast.net

or

Mail registration forms and payment to:
Appelstein Training Resources
12 Martin Avenue
Salem, NH 03079

Purchase orders accepted.

Check out our website at www.charliea.com

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Anyone who trains, supervises or leads professionals dealing with at-risk children, youth, and their families. This course is designed to enhance the strength-based skill set and training acumen of school personnel (regular and special ed), child and youth care providers, foster and residential care leadership, mentoring professionals, and juvenile justice staff.

Innovative Pricing Options !!

Times are tough! In order to make this course more affordable, we are offering two payment options:

Deluxe Registration: For $275, each participant will receive:

- A 170-page Trainer's Manual
- Copies of Charlie's books: "No Such Thing As a Bad Kid" & "The Gus Chronicles I & II"
- Charlie's two self-help CDs: "One-Line Raps for Girls and Chaps" & "Parent Rhapsody"
- Each school or program that attends will receive a complete set (4) of Charlie's new training DVDs
- Total Value: $500

Early Bird Special! $25 discount per person if register by February 14th.

Group Discount: Additional $15 discount for schools or programs that register 3 or more participants.

Economy Registration: For $150, each participant will receive:

- A 170-page Trainer's Manual
- Option to purchase all of Charlie's books, CDs, and DVDs during the seminar at 30-40% off retail prices.

(There are no early-bird or group discounts for the economy registration.)

